

German Troops Control Leipzig; Berlin Is Quiet

Government Acts to Check Revolt Which Threatens to Spread Over Nation and Even Into Austria

Mob's Leaders Cowardly

Shielded Themselves Behind Guns During the Attack on the Reichstag Building

LONDON, Jan. 15.—German troops were marched to Leipzig on Tuesday, where they occupied the squares and public buildings, according to a Berlin dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company to-day. Machine guns were placed in commanding positions. Fears are expressed in diplomatic dispatches received here that the Berlin imbroglio may spread throughout Germany, and even to Vienna, through the agency of the Communists, this element using the recent Berlin disorders to inflame the masses by representing those killed as martyrs to the cause of the people.

Vienna, it is pointed out, would be likely to furnish fertile ground for the agitators because of the great unrest that already exists there. The advice, in analyzing the upheaval in Berlin, point to its original cause as the dissatisfaction of the Independent Socialists over the failure of the government to provide a method for the establishment of the workmen's councils called for by the constitution, but give the immediate cause as indignation at the attitude of the government toward strikers. This resulted in the organization of the great demonstration in front of the Reichstag Building.

Communists Seize Opportunity
The violence that followed, however, is declared to have been due to Communist agents, who took advantage of the assemblage, and working on mob psychology started the riot which resulted so disastrously.

Disorderly scenes occurred again yesterday morning in the National Assembly when Deputy Kandler attempted to deliver a speech regretting the incidents of Tuesday, according to a Berlin dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company. The Independents constantly interrupted Herr Kandler. An attempt had been made, Herr Kandler declared, to put the Parliament, "elected by the most democratic method in the world," under the dictatorship of the street agitator. If the people of Germany now realized how disastrous the tyranny of minority rule would be, he said, the bloodshed on the previous day—the first since the ratification of the peace treaty—would not have flowed in vain. The Independents thereupon created a further disturbance.

Berlin was completely quiet yesterday, according to a wireless dispatch from the German capital. The large factories were working normally and the railway and tram services were not interrupted.

Mob Leaders Save Themselves
Strong indignation is expressed in every branch of industry at the unscrupulousness of the Independents, the dispatch adds, because the leaders hid behind machine guns while the masses were driven forward to face the guns of the soldiers.

It is announced that the Berlin government will not permit demonstrations on the occasion of the burial of the victims of Tuesday's rioting.

BERLIN, Jan. 15.—A Communist manifesto issued to-day urges the immediate election of revolutionary employees' councils in all industrial establishments.

1,000 at Zionist Tea
Women Honor Miss Szold, Pioneer Palestine Worker

Nearly one thousand women of the Zionist movement in New York were present at a reception and tea yesterday afternoon in the ballroom of the Hotel Astor in honor of Miss Henrietta Szold, pioneer organizer of the American Zionist Medical Unit for Palestine. Miss Szold, who has successfully completed her work of organization in this country, will depart early in February for the Holy Land, where she will supervise in person the further development of the unit.

Rabbi Stephen S. Wise, who addressed the women present at the tea, told of Miss Szold's years of service in the Zionist movement since its foundation in 1897 and praised her devotion to the cause of the Jews. The other speakers were Mrs. A. H. Frobenius, who presided; Judge Julian W. Mack and Mrs. J. Sobel. Among the well known women present at the tea were Mrs. J. H. Schiff, Mrs. Mary Fels, Mrs. N. Lindheim, Mrs. Stephen S. Wise, Mrs. Peter Schwartz and Mrs. Emil Weinheim.

Unreserved Treaty Leads in College Ballot by 12,955

Out of 100,000 Votes Cast in 475 Universities of Nation President Wilson's Plan Is Credited With 46,259

Last night's count of the votes cast in the intercollegiate referendum on the treaty of Versailles and the league of nations put the advocates of ratification without reservation or amendment in the lead. Approximately 100,000 votes of the pupils and teachers in 475 institutions show the following totals.

For unreserved ratification, 46,259. For compromise, 33,304. For the Lodge reservations, 23,577. Against ratification in any form, 11,680.

No returns will be received after today, and the final tabulation will be announced to-night. The results to date were wired last evening to Senators Lodge and Hitchcock in Washington. One hundred colleges and universities reported yesterday. These had chosen to follow the referendum committee's original plan for a vote on six propositions, instead of four. The six propositions were: (1) unreserved ratification; (2) no ratification; (3) ratification with Lodge reservations; (4) ratification by compromise; (5) declaration of peace by Congress at once, leaving the league of nations for future consideration; (6) ratification by a compromise which would leave intact reservations guaranteeing the sole right of Congress to make war, the Monroe Doctrine and America's equality of voting in the league.

The vote on these six propositions in the 100 colleges reporting yesterday was:

Mutinies Reported Among French Troops

Naval Forces Also Said To Be Taking Part in Bread Riots at Toulon

LONDON, Jan. 15.—A wireless dispatch from Berlin says that riots and mutinies have broken out among the French naval forces and troops at Toulon, the military and naval port of France on the Mediterranean. The uprisings were caused by insufficient bread supplies, the message asserts.

Peace Terms Are Given To Hungarian Envoys

Count Apponyi Will Explain To-day the Situation of His Home Government

PARIS, Jan. 15.—The terms of peace for Hungary framed by the peace conference, were handed to the Hungarian delegation here this afternoon. The Hungarians were given fifteen days in which to present their observations. The treaty was received by Count Albert Apponyi, head of the delegation, from the hands of Paul Dutasta, general secretary of the peace conference, in the presence of Premiers Clemenceau, Lloyd George and Nitti, who were conferring in the office of the French Foreign Ministry, and Hugh C. Wallace, the American Ambassador, and Baron Matsui, the Japanese Ambassador, who entered the office shortly before the Hungarian plenipotentiaries.

The Hungarian peace treaty provides that Hungary shall formally waive claim to Fiume and all the former Austro-Hungarian territories awarded to Italy, Rumania, Jugo-Slavia and Czecho-Slovakia. Hungary must adhere to the clauses of the treaty with Austria, signed at St. Germain, concerning national minorities.

Under the terms of the treaty the Hungarian army must not exceed 35,000 men, with guns of not more than 10 centimeter caliber. Hungary assumes a proportional share of the Austrian debt.

Special economic clause provides that an arrangement shall be made for the exchange of foodstuffs, raw materials and manufactured goods between Austria and Hungary.

Death Reveals Marriage

Brooklyn Secret Bride Dies in Husband's Home

Her death in Phillipsburg, N. J., revealed yesterday that Miss Violet Howard, the eighteen-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Howard, of 972 Jefferson Avenue, Brooklyn, had been for three months the wife of John Soler Jr., son of a silk manufacturer of Phillipsburg.

Only Mrs. Howard knew of the marriage, which Mr. Howard said had been kept secret by the young couple only in a spirit of romance. Mrs. Soler left Brooklyn the day before Christmas to visit the home of her husband and was stricken with pneumonia. Funeral services will be held this evening at the Howard home.

Delightful Evenings at Home with the DUO-ART PIANO

HAVE you considered what the Duo-Art Piano would mean to you and the guests whom you entertain in your home?

All you have to do is to insert a paper music-roll and touch a small lever. You may hear Paderewski's famous "Minuet" as only the great Polish master himself can play it.

You may hear a tremendous Liszt Rhapsodie as played by the inimitable Josef Hofmann—

The charming folk-music of Percy Grainger, characteristically played by the composer, the musical poesy of Gabrilowitsch, the exquisite tone colorings of Novae, all the gamut of the world's best music is at your command.

Standard and modern classics or dreamy waltzes, snappy up-to-date fox-trots and one-steps

"The Duo-Art Piano, by bringing the fruit of the pianists' created genius before countless people is destined to fill a high mission in the musical life of the future."
Ossip Gabrilowitsch

for dancing; the Duo-Art brings you each; the very finest of its kind. As in the "Arabian Nights" Tales, a Thousand and One Nights of delightful entertainment are summoned to your door by the magic of the Duo-Art.

Nor is even this the extent of the entertainment this greatest of pianos can bring you. As a Pianola it spreads beneath your fingers a perfect piano technique with fascinating, simple operating expression devices, and the world's libraries of piano music for you to play!

As a piano for hand playing its quality is beyond question. The two great features described above have no bearing upon its tone, action or durability. The Duo-Art will be found in Steinway, Steck, Wheelock, Stroud and Weber Pianos—grand and upright models.

A Duo-Art in a Stroud upright piano, operated by foot-pedals, may be obtained for $875, or on monthly terms of $20
